Day to Day Itinerary

Thursday - Day 1 Arrival on your own, room check-in available from 3pm (you will be sent exact instructions on how to arrive). Activities start from Friday morning.

Tours & Activities Only Package - For those that want to book your own accommodations (ideal if you have an apartment or an AirBnb) and come just for the organized tours & activities with groups.

Friday - Day 2 Morning departure (approx. 10am) for guided walking tour of Nice's beautiful old town and see why this city is referred to as "Nissa La Bella". We'll start at Place Massena and venture into the charming streets of old town and its pastel colored buildings, boutiques & small shops and fragrant fromageries, boulangeries and various eateries. Along the way you'll see highlights including the Opera House of Nice, Palais de Justice, Place Rossetti, Castle Hill, Cours Saleya and the flower market and more, along with some great tips for the best food and drink in Nice! Tour lasts approx. 2 hours and you'll have a free afternoon to enjoy the city, the beach or venture to a nearby Riviera towns like Cannes & Antibes. Friday night is a great night to experience Nice's pulsing old town as it features great restaurants, and a ton of live music bars, clubs, and the beautiful beachfront view along the palm tree lined Promenade des Anglais.

During your free afternoon, it's a great opportunity to go to Cannes and Antibes to hit the beach, check out the popular French markets, museums, or spend the day in cities filled with world class shopping and seaside cafes! Antibes is famous for its Picasso museum, charming old town and market, and also being home to some of the world's largest privately owned yachts in its port (yes, billionaires keep their yachts here)! Just a few minutes from Antibes is the beautiful, and ritzy, town of Cannes which is famous for its annual film festival, great shopping and food, and also it's long golden, sandy beach along the famous Croisette pedestrian promenade. You'll receive detailed information on doing these easy side trips for those that want.

Saturday - Day 3 Morning departure (approx. 10am) for Included trip to the Principality of Monaco and the famous city of Monte Carlo! We'll have an in depth walking tour of this glamorous seaside city seeing highlights like the royal palace, national cathedral (where Princess Grace's tomb is), the port of Monaco lined with its amazing collection of yachts, and the famous Casino de Monte Carlo (you'll have the opportunity to try and strike it rich at the casino!). Trip ends mid-afternoon, with free rest of the day and night. Saturday night in Nice is free to enjoy the city again for a great French dinner and some more nightlife or a relaxing night in. Saturday night there is an optional pub crawl offered for those who want an organized party to some of Nice's best spots.

- Trips in February & early March during Carnival feature the wild Saturday night parade in the streets of the city! Go to French Riviera Carnival trip page for more specific details. Trips in mid-May take place during the world famous Cannes Film Festival

Sunday - Day 4 Free day and departure on your own (if you have a later departure you can leave your bags with reception at the hostel). For those with a later departure, you can go enjoy Nice's old town, the Sunday flower market, or the beach. Or it's a great opportunity if you want to explore one of the nearby seaside towns of the Riviera that you didn't get to on Friday or Saturday.

Trip Style - This is an independent trip ideal for groups of friends, family, couples, or even for an independent-minded solo traveler. It is designed as a travel & destination package, not solely as a "group trip". You will be on group tours/activities with other travelers and in a room with other travelers if you book the "shared dorm hostel" package (if you book the "private" room package then you of course will be in your own private room). You will however, have independent time between the guided group tours/activities to explore on your own and do as you please, and will receive a detailed info packet by email with numerous recommendations for additional group activities or tours (beyond what is included), sights/museums and food/drink/nightlife info, etc. It's a great balance between guided & included tours/activities and free time so that you have plenty of time on your own to do what you want.
